Whereas a decade ago you might find 1-2 turntables on sale at a large electronics retailer, there are now dozens of options. The range of turntables can be summarized as follows: You have your bargain basement turntables (typically retailing under $100), your low/mid range turntables in the $100-250 range, your mid-range turntables that go from around $300 to $700, and your sky's ... I have a nearly new Rheem tank water heater from Home Depot with a Honeywell thermostat controller (auto ignition with an on / off and temp control knob only). The thermostat controller LED was blinking 7 times and the manual said it was either this sensor or the controller itself. Figure 1 would try this first as it is only $22 rather than $200.
